Victory Carbide Saw and Tool Co., Chicago, Will Move Factory to Antioch After Jan. 1; Purchases Village Lots in Sequoit Acres

Will Erect Building to Provide 10,000 Sq. Feet Of Factory Space

Victory Carbide Saw and Tool Co. of 3856 North Ashland St., Chicago, will move its factory to Antioch early next year.

This action was forecast Tuesday evening when in a special meeting, the Antioch Village Board of Trustees conveyed lots 5 and 6 in block 4 of Sequoit Acres east of the Soo Line track to the firm for $3,000.

Heading the industrial firm are Clifford Vanderwerker, and his son, Clifford, Jr., both of whom reside at Linden Lane, Channel Lake, west of Antioch.

They told members of the Board that they are now employing 16 persons and want to move to Antioch to expand their business. They will bring eight or nine skilled workers and will draw upon the Antioch labor market for the rest of their help.

The firm manufactures saw blades and other tools for use of industry in the manufacture of non-ferrous metal products.

Plans are made to begin the erection of a one-story factory of 10,000 square feet of space in the near future.

The Vanderwerkers, who have resided in the Antioch area for some time, said they are pleased to find such a good location near home for their factory. The lots have sewer and water and the cost of the lots to them represents the cost to the village of the utility installations.

The Board is seeking new industry for Antioch, and while factories like Victory Carbide Saw and Tool Co. are not large, they have opportunity to grow.

Wilmot to Play at Elkhorn on Friday

The Wilmot Panthers, still without a conference victory, will play Elkhorn there tomorrow (Friday).

The Panthers lost to Whitewater last weekend 12-0.

Whether it was stagefright before a Homecoming crowd or not, the Panthers lost the ball eight times on fumbles and pass interceptions which gave Whitewater the big advantage.

Statistically the Panthers were about as good as, if not even better than Whitewater in some parts of the game.

Kenneth Zech, 20, Chicago, was taken to Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan by the Antioch Rescue Squad following a crash of his car Sunday on North Avenue west of Rte. 45. He was suffering from a fractured pelvis, and other internal injuries and head cuts.

Zech lost control of his car while headed east and ran off the shoulder of the road. The car rolled over a number of times, deputy sheriffs said, and hit a Public Service Co. pole, breaking it off, and then traveling 50 feet farther where it stopped upside down.

The young man was charged with reckless driving.

Dave Poisl, captain of the football team, will crown the queen. The choice of queen will be determined by the outcome of a ticket sales contest being conducted by the four high school classes. Candidates for the Homecoming Queen are: Senior—Cara Steinback; Junior—Pat Mentink, Sophomore—Joan Shaw; and Freshman—Donna Anderson.

During an intermission at the dance, previous football captains and most valuable players will be introduced.

Port Washington Wins Over Salem Central; Falcons at Brookfield

Salem Central was good on the defense but lacked offensive power last week in her game with Port Washington, and as the result lost 7 to 0.

Port Washington scored the only touchdown of the game within the first four minutes after the initial kickoff. After that it was nip and tuck fray with Salem getting no further than the Port Washington 20-yard line. Port Washington is still undefeated this year.

Tomorrow (Friday) the Falcons will play at Brookfield.

Elizabeth Webb, 72, Of Pioneer Family Dies Unexpectedly

Miss Elizabeth Webb, 72, member of a pioneer Antioch family, died unexpectedly of a heart ailment at 2:15 p.m. Saturday in her home at 1084 S. Main st.

Flash Fire Drives 9 From Apartments At 445 Lake Street

A flash fire drove the Russell Homan family of six, Mrs. Mary Runyard, Mrs. Jesse Runyard, and Miss Barbara Best, an Antioch Township High School teacher from their apartments in the Eric Hohnwald building at 445 Lake st. last evening and caused considerable damage to the frame building and contents.

The fire is believed the result of a short circuit.

The Homans were seated in the living room of their first floor flat when the lights went out. One of the members of the family went to a nearby store to get a fuse and by the time he returned smoke began pouring out of the kitchen and in an instant there was a burst of flame.

The fire department got the flames under control but had a difficult time on account of dense smoke to extinguish smoldering embers on the roof. The fire was confined mainly to the back of the two-story frame building, where walls and fixtures were charred.

Volumes of smoke poured through the house, doing much damage.

Mrs. Homan is an employee in the office of the Antioch News.

Antioch Township High School's Homecoming last weekend was all that could be desired.

The parade was unusually good, the weather was excellent, the Sequoits won from Round Lake in football, many grads were back for the various events, and the Homecoming dance was a good one.

Gwen Royer was crowned queen during the intermission of the dance. Her escort was Alvin Meyer, football captain, and the court included Donna Gibbs, escorted by Frank Sebesta, Cathy Arndt, escorted by Dave Mitchell, Chris McNeil, escorted by Bill Dressel, Sue Romer, by Robert Martin, and Pamela Drucker by George Sterbenz.

Laura Hanson, past year's queen crowned Miss Royer, and Marty Bell, last year's king, crowned Meyer.

Mrs. William Dow was the oldest woman graduate and Robert Hallwas was the oldest man graduate to register. The youngest alumni present were Miss Sandy Tegelman and Tom Gudgeon.

Parade winners in the school organization class included the Juniors "Paul Bunyan" float, first place; sophomores "Humpty Dumpty," second; and freshman "Space Ship," third place.

Coddington's Hardware's "Mobey Dick" took first in the out-of-school floats; followed by the "Class of '45," and "Post Grads" of 1957—Robert Doyle.

Student car awards went to Dennis Horton, Ronald Serwa, and James Porter.

In the out-of-school auto class Miss Josephine Diethelm, mathematics instructor, converted her Volkswagen into a bee to "Sting Round Lake," and won first honors; Loon Lake Service Station was second, and Fox Trucking was third.

Winners were announced at the bon fire pep rally which followed the parade Friday evening. Mayor Murrill Cunningham and Gene Sheehan, alumnus, were among the speakers.

Treas. Garland, Deputy Chief Shultis Retire From Fire Department; Served Total 80 Years

George Garland and Clarence Shultis, two of Antioch's veteran firemen retired as members of the department Tuesday evening after having given a total of 80 years of service to the force, and 59 years in office.

Garland ended 36 years of service as treasurer, and Deputy Chief Shultis, 23 years as clerk of the department.

It was with reluctance that their fellow firemen accepted the resignations.

Both men said that their health does not permit them to engage actively in fire fighting. They will be considered honorary members of the department, however.

Shultis, who is village clerk, joined the department in 1920. He was elected secretary in 1934 and has been re-elected to the post continuously for 23 years. He was elected captain in 1946, assistant chief in 1949, and deputy chief in 1955.

Garland, a village trustee, became a member of the department

Antioch Firm Awarded Contract to Construct Village Storage Bldg.

Structure to Cost $4,938.33; Heaths Get Permit For New Building

A contract was agreed upon between the Village Board and the Antioch Lumber and Coal Co. for that firm to erect a new storage building on village property at a cost of $4,938.33.

Two bids were opened by the Board in a special meeting Tuesday evening.

The other bid was $4,387 by the Steel-Bilt Structure Co. of Madison, Wis.

Because his firm was involved in the bidding, Trustee Edmund F. Vos did not vote.

The bid of the Antioch firm was accepted because it provided for a steel building 40 x 60 x 12 feet in contrast to the Madison firm's offer of a building 40 x 50 x 10 feet. On the basis of space the lumber and coal company's bid was considered not only the better deal but provided a more satisfactorily sized building.

The new storage building will be erected on village property near the sewage disposal plant, and will house village street equipment and supplies.

In other business authorized by the special meeting, the Board approved a building permit to Marvin W. Heath and Son to erect a 24 x 36 foot cement block building north of the Shell station on Broadway to serve as a wood workshop for the contracting firm.

Cancer Fund Drive Sets New Record; Total $57,775.09

A record-breaking total of $57,775.09 was raised in Lake county this year by the American Cancer Society, according to a final campaign report just issued by Charles A. Wilcox of Lake Forest.

Quota for the entire county was $40,000, said Wilcox, chairman of the Society's Lake County executive committee.

Antioch area went over the top with a total of $688.47. The goal was $675.

Lake Villa was a little shy of its $300 goal with a total of $292.45.

Mundelein had the best report, more than doubling its goal of $600.

"The success of the Cancer Society's 1957 educational and fund-raising crusade was apparent at the end of April, our regular campaign month. Goals had been topped in almost every Lake County community."

"But just recently we completed final addition of all the funds. Generous amounts of money, in the form of memorials and miscellaneous donations, invariably find their way to the Society's Waukegan office after the campaign officially closes. Only when all these funds are added up can we see the really overwhelming generosity of Lake County men and women."

The report by Wilcox also pointed out that much of the money raised will be retained in Lake County, to carry on the Society's year-round free service and education program from headquarters at 228 North Genesee, Waukegan.

E. Morley Webb of Mexico, arrived in Antioch Monday for a visit with relatives.

The German Miracle

The economic resurgence of Western Germany has been one of the authentic miracles of this chaotic age. She suffered almost unimaginable physical destruction, followed by years of occupation by the victorious military forces. Yet today Germany's industry is booming; the country is extremely prosperous by European standards, her trade balance is highly favorable, and her currency is remarkably stable. Incredible as it seems, Joseph Alsop writes that Germany is likely to supersede Britain as the world's third power, after the United States and the Soviet Union.

Mr. Alsop gives several reasons for the German miracle and two of them are of great significance. First, is the "toughly conservative economic policies" of Konrad Adenauer—policies largely based on maintaining and strengthening a true free enterprise system. Second, is the awareness of the powerful German labor unions that "... living standards must only rise as output rises." In other words, these unions believe in doing more and better work—and thus earning higher wages and other benefits.

There is a great lesson in this for every nation of the Western world—the United States included.

Grassroots Opinion

ANAHEIM, CAL., BULLETIN: "... proposals to make unions subject to anti-trust laws are current in Congress. In recent days they have gathered considerable momentum as a reaction to the new drive by teamsters boss James Hoffa to weld all transportation labor into a giant new union."

SULLIVAN, ILL., NEWS: "The schools are one of the biggest users of tax dollars in the community. Taxpayers who supply those dollars have a right to expect that they be spent locally whenever and wherever possible. ... These local business concerns not only provide some of the tax dollars but they support and contribute to school activity programs."

MASON TOWN, PA., BULLETIN: "Smoky, the Bear, has been seen on television many times during the past few months, warning us to avoid forest and brush fires. The trouble with Smoky on TV is that while his message may be appropriate to California or New England viewers at a given time, he is also warning people who are in the midst of a rainy season. Like the school zone signs which lose their effect when they remain on the street during the summer vacation, the regular appearance of Smoky robs his message of effectiveness."

SUMMIT, MISS., SUN: "... the U. S. Treasury paid $600 million as interest on the $23 billion Social Security trust fund invested in federal bonds. ... In short, you've paid social security once when you pay your tax—and you pay more on it every time the government pays interest on those bonds!"

TERRE HAUTE, IND., TRIBUNE-STAR: "... Though the mythical 'average' American can buy almost 50 per cent more consumer goods than he could buy in 1929, inflation could play hob with the figures. It already is putting a painful squeeze on some people, and in some degree it is affecting all of us. Inflation, far from being a vague threat, is a real danger that can gobble up our economic advances unless it is kept under control."

Grassroots Opinion

WEST POINT, MISS., DAILY TIMES LEADER: "... all of us know that federal spending is not going to be turned off like one would turn a faucet handle. There must be a gradual decline—in spending first, and then in taxes."

CHAGRIN FALLS, O., EXPONENT: Physicians, newly impressed with the growth and energy potential of a high protein diet, are increasing the meat ration for patients of all ages."

HOWARD, S. D., MINER COUNTY PIONEER: "Yes, Jake ... the only difference between us and a millionaire ... is that we worry over the next meal ... and he worries over the last one."

WACO, TEXAS, FARM AND LABOR JOURNAL: "As organized labor we will continue to work within the system of free enterprise. The system is as dear to us as to anyone. There could be no free labor without capital. Collective bargaining would be meaningless in a government-dominated economy ... The right of business to a fair return is basic to the American system. Equally basic is the right of labor to a fair wage."

LIBERAL, KAN., DAILY TIMES: "Awareness of the lack of water supply in the U. S. today is in about everybody's mind. However, if you think we have troubles now, take a look on down the road, say two decades hence. It is estimated that by then America's water supply will have to be doubled."

STOCKTON, KAN., ROOKS COUNTY RECORD: "There is no doubt about it. A quarter doesn't go as far today as it used to unless you happen to drop it on the sidewalk."

A Clear and Present Danger

No one can truthfully call Donald R. Richberg an enemy of labor. He has been one of this country's leading labor lawyers. He was prominent in the New Deal and once headed the NRA. He was co-author of the Railway Labor Act, which many labor spokesmen regard as a monument of its kind.

This gives significance to a book Mr. Richberg has written—a book whose title makes its point: "Labor Union Monopoly: A Clear and Present Danger." Mr. Richberg goes into full detail in tracing the growth of this monopoly, and then offers a three faceted proposal for curbing it.

First, he believes, the anti-trust laws should be extended to make the creation and exercise of monopoly powers by labor unions unlawful. In other words, the unions would simply be placed in the same legal position as all other groups in our society.

Second, he urges that Congress declare compulsory unionism a form of "involuntary servitude," within the definition of the 13th Amendment to the Constitution. This would amount to a national "right to work" law, under which a man could join a union if he so chose or refuse to join if he so chose and have the right to a job in his trade in either case.

Third, he would have the law forbid strikes against the public health, safety and welfare; strikes designed to compel political action, and strikes conducted with the aid of criminal violence.

Mr. Richberg, in short, is for a labor policy, based in law, that would safeguard the legitimate interests of all—the worker, business and industry, and most important, the American people as a whole.

Don Anderson took first place in the main shoot. Tom Hay placed second. George MacDermott and Robert Meier each placed first in the two novelty shoots.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lang and family of Ingleside were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Graves and family.

William Dow Named Assistant Postmaster

William Dow will become Antioch's first assistant postmaster, assuming his new duties Saturday.

As a foot carrier Dow will be succeeded by August Bulan. The new assistant postmaster had been employed as a clerk in the office before being assigned as a carrier when home delivery was started last spring.

The growth of the Antioch office was such that Postmaster Roy Kufalk could not handle all of the administrative work.

The office received its first government-owned mail delivery vehicle Monday. While it is not a new one, it is still quite serviceable.

Firemen to Have Outside Stairway To Basement Area

Bids will be received by the Village Board on Oct. 15 for the construction of an outside stairway leading to the basement of the fire station.

The only entrance to the basement which is used mainly as a meeting room for the firemen, is an interior one, and the firemen, conscious of fire hazards, admit this situation is not so good.

Because of the one entrance, or exit, the firemen are prevented having some events or permitting other groups using the building.

Ahern said today that the Chapter needs men, who work or who are retired, and women, who are housewives or career women. Those interested are asked to telephone the Lake County Chapter, ON-

2-4044, or write to P. O. Box 98, Waukegan.

"Our Chapter helps servicemen, veterans, and their families," explained Ahern. "A chapter always has an important job in time of disaster. We carry on many other activities that help the community."

Women volunteers this fall will have the first opportunity in three years to take the Gray Lady Training Course in Lake County. A potential Gray Lady must be 21 years of age or older. Preliminary to getting her uniform, which she pays for herself, she must take a 12-hour training course. After that is completed, she gives 10 hours of probationary work. Once a Gray Lady, she is expected to average 50 volunteer hours a year.

For the training course, volunteers, who are urged to register at once, will meet at the Chapter house, 308 Julian St., Waukegan, on Friday, Oct. 18, from 1 to 3 p. m. or from 7 to 9 p. m., according to the volunteer's choice.

Actual training will be given at the Naval Hospital at Great Lakes on Oct. 22 and 24, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Ahern urged all Gray Ladies in the Lake County Chapter to remind women in their areas of the training course. Mrs. Sidney Morris, Gray Lady for the sixth year, Highland Park, said today there is a great need for more volunteers to aid in crafts and in recreation at the Naval hospital.

Gray Ladies may wish to explain their work to interested persons. Mrs. George Cottrell is a Gray Lady of Lake Bluff; Mrs. Vera Yuncer, Grayslake; Mrs. Grace Rogers, Grange; and Mrs. Dorothy Boyd and Mrs. Bessie Hagerty, both of Libertyville; Mrs. Everett Robertson, Ft. Sheridan; and many others.

6¢ a load
is all you pay —
to dry the clean
electric way

An electric dryer does all this for just 6¢: 3 big bath towels, 6 hand towels, 2 sheets, 2 pairs shorts, 2 T-shirts, 5 pairs of socks, 3 pillowcases, 2 men's shirts. This average 8-lb. load will take only 25 to 30 minutes.

Nothing's faster, nothing's cleaner— and electric dryers are completely automatic

COST?

ELECTRIC DRYERS
cost
$30 to $60 less to buy
than any other kind

Just 6¢ to dry an 8-lb. load of clothes the electric way. And the electric way is the completely automatic way. No igniting devices to get out of order.

Clothes dried in an electric dryer have the good fresh smell of all outdoors, too. Electric heat is radiant heat... like the sun. Clean and dry... with no combustion odors to mix with the clothes.

Electric dryers are fast. You can dry a whole load of cottons in just 25 to 30 minutes. And all the "no-vent" dryers are electric. Your laundry stays clean, dry and comfortable, makes venting unnecessary.

You'll be amazed when your electric appliance dealer tells you how little it costs to own an electric dryer. Why not see about it soon?

Prepare Your Car For Winter Now

Winterize your car now, as temperatures in some Midwest areas have already plunged close to the freezing mark.

Motorists can save trouble, time, and expense by preparing their automobiles for cold weather before it hits. By winterizing now both delays at service stations and garages and damage to the car caused by sudden dips of the mercury can be avoided.

Weather records in the Midwest for the last five years show that freezing temperatures and snow have struck several times during the last week in October.

To avoid the rush which will start immediately after the first forecast of cold weather the following protective measures should be taken now:

—Drain and flush the radiator of your car; check all hose connections; tighten clamps, and add standard brand anti-freeze solution.

—Check ignition system—generator, voltage regulator, and distributor points. Reset timing and clean or replace spark plugs.

—Test battery for full charge; clean battery terminals, tighten battery cables, and replace worn out batteries and battery cables.

—Check the fuel pump. A faulty fuel pump will fail to function properly and will waste gasoline.

—Apply lightweight winter grade oil and grease. Be sure your engine and gears are properly lubricated.

Tips to keep your car rolling through ice and snow follow:

—Keep battery fully charged. Have it checked once each week.

—Keep gas line from freezing. Add eight ounces of grain alcohol or approved commercial equivalent to every other full tank of gasoline.

—Keep electrical system dry. Drive slowly through water.

—Carry a shovel and bucket of sand, salt or cinders in the trunk of your car. An emergency abrasive will help get your car moving when parked at a sloping curb or on slippery ice. Do not park in standing water, for tires may freeze to the pavement.

—Heat key to open frozen locks. To prevent doors and trunk lid from freezing, wipe them dry when wet.

—Use gear shift as parking brake if necessary. The emergency brake may freeze when wet.

Leave earlier on your trips, the Emergency Road Service said.

Drive slowly and get there safely.

Health Precautions

Home Care for the Sick

Suppose someone in your family comes down with a bad cold, gripple or the flu, measles or chickenpox or whatever? Would you know the best ways to take care of him at home? Now—before actual illness comes—is the time to learn the fundamentals of nursing a sick person at home.

How well you care for your patient, has much to do with how fast he gets well, whether complications develop—or even whether other family members get sick, too. You should know, for example:

1. How to take the temperature. If this is new to you, check books on home nursing for diagrams and instructions, or ask someone to show you how. Take small children's temperature rectally, remembering that rectal temperature ordinarily is one degree higher than oral. Usually oral temperature over 98.6° F. is considered a fever, but small increases over this point may not be significant. Temperature follows a pattern of rise and fall: generally a fever will be higher in the evening than in the morning. Write down the temperature each time it is taken to give your doctor a clear idea of changes in condition.

2. How to isolate the person with a communicable (catching) disease. The two reasons for doing this are to protect others in the family, and to protect the patient from picking up germs of other illnesses when he's less able to resist them. Naturally, complete isolation is difficult in most homes. But it can be arranged. If a separate room is impossible, use a screen around the bed. Wear a wrap-around house-dress backwards for a protective gown when you enter the sickroom—and hang it next to the door as you leave. Unless there is a separate bathroom, use a bedpan or a commode in the sickroom. Cover the pan as you carry it, and scrub your hands thoroughly afterwards. Keep the patient's pajamas, linen, and especially objects that come in contact with his face and mouth (washcloths, tissues, toothbrush, comb, brush, soap), separate from the rest of the family's. Collect used tissues in paper bags and burn them. Thoroughly wash your hands and face before and after each trip into the sickroom.

3. How to handle the patient's food and dishes. Serving from a tray or portable table on wheels saves time and energy. Keep a separate set of dishes, which are thoroughly washed and preferably boiled in water after each meal—especially important if the disease is communicable. Wash your hands thoroughly, with soap and warm water and a scrub brush, before and after handling the patient's food, dishes, and other belongings. This helps prevent spread of disease to others in the family. Make mealtimes pleasant occasions by tidying up the sickroom and patient first, serving attractive meals, keeping the portions small, and allowing him plenty of time to eat.

4. How to make your patient more comfortable. Change the bed linen frequently, give a daily bed-bath and alcohol rub. For a bed-bath, wash and dry one section of the body at a time, from the head down, while the rest of your patient is covered by a sheet or a blanket. Don't jerk or pull the sick person suddenly—use slow and gentle motions. Give him a hand in getting out of bed, as a fever and even lying down can cause dizziness and falls when he first gets up. Try to follow a regular routine in caring for the sick person. Keep a record of medicines given—kind, amount and time, and any reaction to it.

Check with your library, local health department, Visiting Nurse Association, and Family Service Association for further information about home care, supplies needed, and actual assistance during an illness.

Real Potent Brew

Keeper of a local inn having a reputation for its very strong brew was awakened at 3 a. m. by a loud knocking on the front door. Putting his head out of the window he shouted: "Go away! You can't have anything to drink at this hour!" "Who wants anything to drink?" was the response. "I left here at closing time without my crutches!"

U. of I. Food Report

Week of October 7-12

Chicago—The Chicago-area food picture is one of low prices and sharp competition for your traffic.

Profusion of store promotions and their impact on marketing values have as much significance to home-maker budgets as the total supply situations on which the University of Illinois consumer service bases its weekly summary of food values, reported in terms of price, quality and availability.

Taking these newer influences into consideration along with seasonally declining food costs and productive abundance, the U. of I. rates bargains for the Week ending Oct. 12 as follows:

Beef—Steaks, rump and rib roasts; Pork—ham, bacon, spare ribs; Lamb—leg and shoulder roasts; Poultry—fryers, stewing hens, tom turkeys; Vegetables—Brussels sprouts, tomatoes, spinach, celery; Fruit—Jonathan and McIntosh apples; Groceries—Tomato juice, tuna fish, coffee.

The first flush of new promotions in metropolitan retail outlets produced some startling pricing situations which cannot be reported in the usual range and consensus terms. Organized confusion that results in merchandising problems is one way to describe the market this week.

Some clear-cut marketing economies can be reported as follows: Beef—Supplies and prices continue steady, with demand for particular cuts keyed closely to the prevailing weather. All classes of steaks are in top value position as the market holds steady.

Pork—Hog prices jumped sharply at wholesale and quotations for fresh loin cuts followed suit. Up about 5c per pound, price tags read most frequently 43-45c for full rib cuts, 59-61c for loin half roasts. Center chops start quoting 85c, but spare ribs are a cheap 49c consensus. Ham holds the price line at the 49-53c noted a week ago. Bacon quotes a consensus 69c for most top quality brands. Picnics and smoked Boston butts are stable price-wise.

Lamb—A better value in more stores with improved supplies and falling prices. Top quality leg roasts quote 65c, yearling kinds 55-59c. Shoulder roasts range from 39c for square cuts. Shoulder steaks quote often at 39c. Quotes for rib and loin chops are too wide to have any market significance.

Poultry—Large eggs are higher, bigger supplies of medium sized eggs are a better bargain, while small eggs, hardest to find, are the lowest priced. Fryers continue cheap, stewing hens are still consensus priced 35c. Tom turkeys continue at fire sale prices of 35-39c in lots of stores. Hen turkeys appear scarcer and more price tags read from 45-49c. Small Beltville birds are short supplied this year and higher priced.

Produce—Moderate prices prevail for a wide selection of fresh vegetables. Weather situations are accountable for higher price tags for snap beans, cucumbers, sweet potatoes and sweetcorn. Lettuce continues to quote widely because of quality ranges, but is now priced, as are salad substitutes such as endive, escarole and celery. Look for top values in Brussel sprouts, tomatoes, cabbage, squash, spinach, yellow onions and western crown potatoes.

Grapefruit is increasing in volume but is still of poor quality—rain could improve the taste. Apples will continue to be the fresh fruit value at the lowest prices in many a year for the top demand multipurpose Jonathan and McIntosh varieties. October is the peak month for grapes.

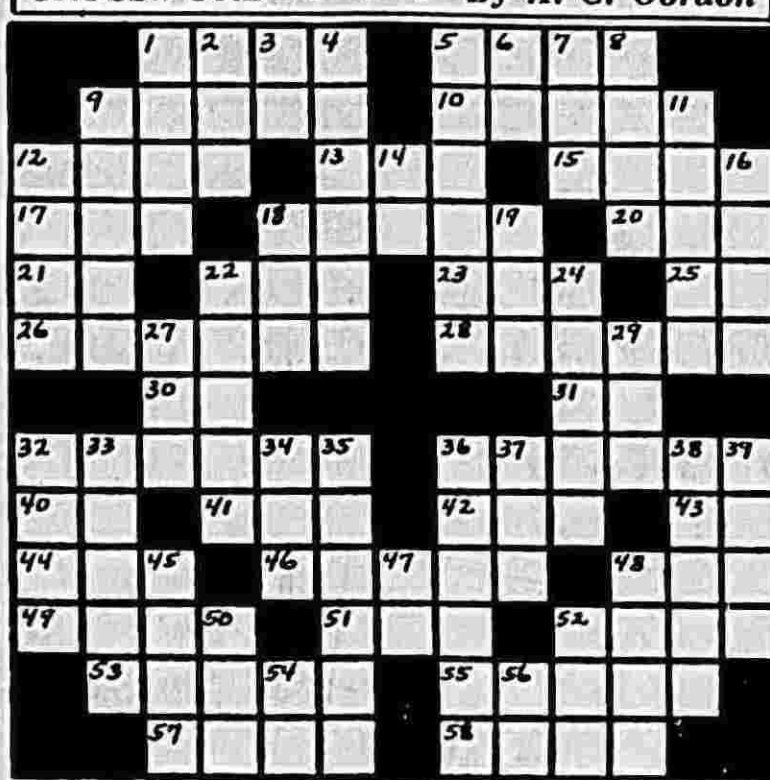

Groceries—Indications of higher wholesale costs for tomatoes, apple sauce and sauerkraut, for example, are not reflected in this week's survey.

areas for damaging fires to start, primed by a discarded cigarette or a hot tractor exhaust.

As the nation marks National Fire Prevention Week, the danger of fires starting in fallen leaves or dead grass is great, Otto Steffey, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, said today.

Almost as big a cause of fires for the next few months will be overheated or defective stoves and furnaces, predicted Steffey. Based on National Safety Council figures, defective heating equipment causes about one-sixth of all farm fires!

"Most of us are familiar with the causes of farm fires, but we tend to ignore them because we think they couldn't happen to us—that it's the neighbor in the next township or in the county to the west that will be unfortunate."

However, continued Steffey, fires do strike close to home, claiming valuable property and taking many lives. Steady increase in the number of electrical appliances added to our wiring circuits throughout the farmsteads makes more than three-fourths of our farms sadly lacking in proper wiring.

"Adequate wiring means having big enough wire installed to make up for the added electrical appliances on a circuit," explained Steffey. "If you add appliances to a circuit, you must increase the size of the wire or add a new circuit so that enough current can pass through it to operate the units properly."

"Appliances may operate on an overloaded circuit, but they will not operate up to standard, and the continued effort to gain enough electricity causes the wire to become overheated—and start a fire."

From 45-64 years, 23.9 per cent of the deaths occurred, while 27.7 per cent were in the age group over 65.

Loss of life in farm fires is highest among the younger and older age groups. Children under five years of age accounted for 12.3 per cent of the farm fire death losses in the country in 1956, the National Safety Council reports.

The best thing to do about fires is to constantly take steps to prevent them. "Fire Prevention Week" simply emphasizes the fact that farm people should take special effort to get rid of the potential causes of fire.

"Check and eliminate hazards regularly—not spasmodically. Have fire-fighting equipment on hand so you can put out a small fire. Be sure there is an adequate supply of water to help the fire department fight the big fire."

Despite all precautions fires do occur, and Steffey listed these steps to take in case a fire does break out:

1. Get everyone out and away from the building on fire. Protect human lives first.

2. Call for help at nearest phone—or make sure someone calls or goes for help.

3. Keep fire from spreading and concentrate on protecting other buildings, livestock, and property. It may be you will need to remove animals from the building but be sure you are not endangering your own life by entering the burning structure.

"Now is a good time for every family to plan what they would do in case of fire," concluded Steffey. "Instruct the older children in how to call the fire department and in the proper method of operating the fire extinguisher."

"Determine what each of the parents will do if they should awaken at night and find the home on fire. Decisions made ahead of time as to who will call the children, pick up the baby, save certain valuables, and call the fire department and the neighbors can save vital seconds."

Marvin Chandler Elected Officer of American Gas Assn.

Marvin Chandler, president and chief executive officer of Northern Illinois Gas Company was elected vice-chairman of the General Management Section of the American Gas Association at the 39th annual A. G. A. convention Tuesday of this week. Mr. Chandler was elected last year to a two-year term on the Association's Board of Directors.

The American Gas Association is the national trade association of the $19-billion gas industry. Its 8,000 members throughout the world include the leading gas utilities, pipeline companies, and gas appliance and equipment manufacturers in the United States and Canada. The three-day convention, which concludes tomorrow, is being attended by more than 4,000 delegates from nearly every state in the union.

Mr. Chandler, who resides in Glen Ellyn, Ill., graduated from Dartmouth College in 1932 and received a master's degree in 1934 from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

He was elected president of Northern Illinois Gas Company in November 1954 and named as a director in June 1955. Prior to his association with the Northern Illinois Gas Company, Mr. Chandler was vice-president of Reis & Chandler, Inc., New York, nationally known public utility financial and investment consultants.

Internal Revenue Issues New Tax Form Package to Employers

H. Alan Long, District Director of Internal Revenue for northern Illinois, announced today that the Internal Revenue Service has changed its method of mailing employment tax forms to employers who report and pay income tax withheld from wages and taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act.

Early in 1957, Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, was printed as a "self-mailer," and the practice of enclosing the forms in envelopes was discontinued.

On or about October 15, 1957, there will be a special mailing to employers of a booklet, captioned EMPLOYER'S TAX INFORMATION FORMS, containing the following forms and publication which, in past years, were enclosed with Forms 941:

(For the immediate use of employers)

Form W-4, "Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate," for use by new employees or by employees whose exemptions will be different next year. Six forms are provided in the booklet.

Publication No. 213, a bulletin board poster for use by the employer in reminding his employees of the importance of claiming their withholding exemptions correctly.

Form 941a, the continuation sheet of Form 941, for employers who have more employees than can be conveniently listed on Form 941.

FORM 7018, "Order for Employer's Tax Information Forms," for use by the employer in requesting additional forms from the District Director.

(For use at the end of the year)
Form W-2, "Withholding Tax Statement—1957," to be furnished to employees not later than January 31, 1958. The booklet contains enough forms for six employees.

Form W-3, "Reconciliation of Income Tax Withheld from Wages," to be filed by the employer not later than January 31, 1958.

Check List, for use by the employer in determining whether or not he is required to file Form 940, the annual return for employers of four or more employees under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

The booklet will not contain Forms W-2 for 1958, but District Directors will furnish supplies of the form upon requests made during that year. The employer must furnish Form W-2 to each employee whose employment is terminated before the close of the calendar year, on or before the thirtieth day after the last payment of wages to the employee.

Northern Ill. Gas Co. Opens New Meter Shop

Northern Illinois Gas Company officially opened its new $500,000 meter shop in LaGrange (550 S. East Avenue) Wednesday, Oct. 2, with an open house where the latest methods and modern equipment help assure the accuracy of the more than 600,000 meters now being used by the utility's customers.

Considered one of the most modern in design, the new meter shop features a conveyor system to carry meters through various operations with a minimum of lost motion. Planned to meet future needs, the new shop will permit processing of over 175,000 meters annually.

The Illinois Commerce commission requires that all gas meters be shop checked at least once every 10 years which means between 60,000 and 70,000 must be removed from customer's premises annually by Northern Illinois Gas at the present time and replaced with meters that have been tested.

New Application Blanks For 1958 Auto License

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 30.—Illinois motorists will make application for their 1958 license plates on a new type of application blank, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter said today.

When he fills out the upper part of the blank, the car owner will also be making out his own identification card, which is attached to the back of the application blank, Mr. Carpenter said.

No carbon paper is required to make the copy, but a typewriter or ball point pen should be used in filling in the required information, he said.

Both pieces—the application blank and the card—must be submitted to his office for processing, Secretary Carpenter declared. They should not be separated, he emphasized. The identification card will be returned with the license plates.

Use of the new form is expected to speed up mailing of license plates substantially because it eliminates the necessity of photographing the upper part of the application by a dextrigraph process to produce the identification card, Mr. Carpenter said.

In Springfield and Chicago, where plates are sold over the counter, the motorist will receive both the plates and his identification card at the same time, instead of having to wait for the card to be mailed at a later date.

In addition to the improved service to the motorist, the new system is expected to result in a saving to the Illinois taxpayer of about $60,000 a year because of the elimination of the need for one dextrigraph copy and the postage and envelope for mailing cards for over-the-counter sales, Secretary Carpenter said.

Because Secretary Carpenter's office is attempting to standardize names of applicants for all motor vehicle matters, including certificate of title, registration and driver's license, some additional requirements are being started concerning the applicant's name.

The full name is now required on the application. For example, it should be shown as Brown, James Richard. In cases where the individual has no middle name, it should be done this way: Brown, James (none). If the individual has no middle name, but just a middle initial, that should be shown like this: Brown, James A. (only).

Women should use their given names, whether they are married or single. "Brown, James R. Mrs." is not acceptable. It must be shown: Brown, Mary Jane.

Complete, bona fide addresses must be given. P. O. Box or General Delivery addresses will not be accepted unless there are no street names or number in the town.

Ask Veterans League To Support Election Of Precinct Leaders

Springfield, Ill.—The Cook County Council of the Illinois Republican Veterans League will make another attempt to have the next General Assembly adopt a law providing for the election of precinct committeemen.

The Oct. 12-13 convention of the Veterans League at the Abraham Lincoln Hotel will be asked to act on such a resolution by the resolutions committee of the Illinois Republican Veterans League, headed by Mancel Talcott of Waukegan.

Resolutions calling for election of precinct committeemen rather than appointing them have been adopted at previous conventions of the Veterans League.

The legislation has never reached the floor of either house, but has died each time in committee, according to Capelle H. Damrell, chairman of the IRVL's Cook County Council, and a state vice chairman.

Action on this and other important resolutions will be some of the highlights of the two-day convention which 500 persons are expected to attend.

Reservations for the banquet at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, Oct. 12, are coming in fast, Thomas A. Patrick, IRVL state chairman, said today. Sunday's convention business will get under way at 9:30 a. m.

Governor William G. Stratton is honorary chairman of this 29th annual convention. He will share speaking honors at the banquet with George N. Craig, national chairman of the IRVL, former Governor of Indiana, and past national commander of the American Legion.

Crippled Children Convention
The Annual Convention of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults will be held Oct. 30 to Nov. 2, 1957 in Chicago's Palmer House.

There will be no charge for registration, general sessions, professional seminars, workshops, or institutes at this year's convention.

An invitation has been extended to all rehabilitation workers.

Many aspects of the life cycle of shrimp have been discovered by a process called "tagging." Small numbered disks are placed on the young, which are then released to wander as they will. By paying fishermen 50 cents for each "tagged" shrimp when it is found, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service can discover the relationship between its final destination and where it was first set loose to roam.

Continued competition for customer traffic by Chicago foodstores has as much food budget significance as the supply situation. Beef, poultry and lamb still are low cost fresh meats. Only cured pork items are bargain priced. Eggs are higher priced, with medium sizes the most available at reasonable prices. Canned applesauce and corn are higher priced at wholesale, not reflected yet at retail. Most vegetables are moderately priced but higher for snap beans, cucumbers and sweetcorn.

Many War Widows May Now Qualify For Death Pension

Springfield, Ill.—Willard A. Manning, Administrator of the Illinois Veterans' Commission, today advised widows of veterans that President Eisenhower has signed Public Law 85-209 which establishes a more liberal policy in granting death compensation or pension. This law becomes effective October 1, 1957.

Many widows of World War I and World War II veterans failed to qualify for death compensation or pension because they had not been married to the veteran for a period of at least ten years prior to his death.

Mr. Manning stated that Public Law 85-209 establishes a uniform marriage requirement of five or more years prior to his death.

Mr. Manning stated that Public Law 85-209 establishes a uniform marriage requirement of five or more years, unless a child or children is born to the union, in which case no specific period of marriage is required.

THIS WEEK IN WASHINGTON

(With Clinton Davidson)

Washington is getting set for another whirl on the inflation merry-go-round, and dreading the ride. There are almost daily huddles of top government officials seeking some way to slow down the pace. Almost no one talks about stopping inflation.

For fifteen years now we have had officially-approved creeping inflation. Your dollar will buy only half as much now as it did in pre-World War II, 1940. In the past year it has decreased by about 5c in value.

Inflation, if it does not move too fast, can easily be mistaken for growing prosperity. It encourages people to invest their money with hopes of getting more dollars back when they sell.

It is only when the monster threatens to get out of control that Washington becomes alarmed. It is like a little fire that warms the economy, and a big fire that destroys.

To those of us who lived through boom and bust period of the late 1920's and early 1930's, inflation is an awesome and fearful thing. We know it can destroy men and bring a nation to its knees.

From World War I until 1929 we saw inflation and called it prosperity. We learned then that inflation is the destroyer of prosperity, not its promoter. We ought to remember that now.

President Eisenhower's warning that inflation is an immediate threat to the national welfare was based on confidential reports by both government and private economists and financiers.

We have talked with some of the same experts. None of them think rapid inflation is inevitable; and only a few think it is probable. All think it is avoidable, but they don't agree on how.

Mr. Eisenhower thinks it can be avoided, or at least slowed down, if you and I stop buying things we don't have to have when the price gets too high; if labor will ease up on demands for higher wages, and industry will hold down on profits.

Those are three mighty big "ifs." When prices are going up people tend to buy before they go higher. Labor leaders say that living costs are rising and wages must go up to keep pace. Industry complains that higher wages force higher prices.

It is a vicious circle that no one seems able, or willing, to break. The difficulty is that none of us knows just where the "breaking point" is between inflation and depression.

At what point under inflationary pressures will the economy snap? The signs that most of us see all point toward continued prosperity. There is no indication of scarcity. Industrial production is at an all-time high. We have an abundance of foods and fibers.

National income in both dollars and consumers goods and services is at an all-time high. Employment is at a record high of almost 67 million, and unemployment at a remarkably low 2.5 million.

We are, as a nation, "living higher on the hog" than ever before. We are buying more homes, automobiles, television sets, other conveniences and luxuries than ever before—much of it on the installment plan.

Already we have ventured far beyond the point at which our economy collapsed in 1929. We know that there is a "breaking point" in any inflationary boom, but we don't know where it is.

"Lake County Day" At Great Lakes Naval Station on Saturday

Great Lakes, Ill.—Guided Missiles, fire fighting, deep set diving, super-sonic planes, and atomic powered ships will be featured here at the Naval Training Center on "Lake County Day," Saturday, Oct. 12. These are among the many displays and demonstrations which will be open to all Lake County residents from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The objectives of "Lake County Day" are two fold. For the Navy, it will be a big climax to the Training Center's summer-long Homecoming which has drawn nearly 200,000 visitors since it began last June. "We will show our local friends just what has been going on this summer by inviting them to visit us on their day," said Captain A. C. Burrows, Center Commander.

"For Lake County, the special day will give local residents an opportunity to pay tribute to the Training Center for its contribution as a member of the community," said Leo Poret, President of Lake County Council, Navy League. Some of the contributions pointed out by the Navy League were the 40 construction contracts totalling about 25 million, awarded last year.

These contracts provided employment for some 200 Lake County citizens. In addition, nineteen Navy projects amounting to 492,000 were awarded exclusively to Lake County contractors. Coupled with this, the Navy League officials stated, is the $3¼ million payroll each month to about 15,000 military personnel and 4,000 civil service employees.

Highlights of "Lake County Day" will include a review at 10 a. m.; an afternoon football clash between the Naval Training Center Bainbridge, Md., and Great Lakes, with the "Bronze Boot Trophy" at stake; and a full day of "open house" activities similar to those held throughout the summer when 21 midwestern and southern states were honored by the Navy.

Antioch Boy Scouts, Troop 92 To Be Host At District Training Roundtable October 16

Sequoits Nip R. Lake....

touchdown in the first quarter. Antioch received the kickoff and drove to the Round Lake 36-yard line where the team was held for downs and forced to punt. A bad pass from center put the ball on the Antioch 30-yard line and six plays later Round Lake scored on a 15-yard run by Henry Olson on a play around left end.

The try for the extra point failed when Don Pyle, line backer stopped the ball carrier at the line.

In the second quarter Antioch marched from the 5-yard line to the Round Lake 47-yard line where she punted. Round Lake fumbled and the Sequoits recovered the ball on the Round Lake 40 stripe. The Sequoits passed and marched to the 11-yard line where George Lystlund circled left end for a touchdown. Lystlund then passed to Ed Kadlec for the extra point which won the game.

In the third quarter Antioch drove to the Round Lake 25-yard line where the team lost the ball through a pass interception by Reinhofer.

In the fourth quarter the Sequoits fumbled on the 35-yard line which Round Lake recovered. With four seconds left to play Round Lake made a desperate attempt to score on a pass, but Bill Hart intercepted the ball and saved the game for Antioch.

The statistics showed:
Antioch had eight fumbles, three of which were recovered by Round Lake, and Round Lake had three fumbles, all of which were recovered by Antioch.

Antioch had nine first downs to Round Lake's six, but Round Lake gained 217 yards to Antioch's 171 yards from scrimmage. Round Lake attempted three passes, completed one, and suffered one interception for a total of 28 yards. Antioch attempted nine passes, completed three, and lost on one interception for 36 yards.

Weakness of the Antioch defense was seen in the fact that of the 217 yards gained by Round Lake, 160 yards were around the ends.
